I want to welcome you to the Jamesburg High School Alumni Association TENTH All-Class Reunion.

We are partying like 1979 tonight because that's the year our beloved Jamesburg High School closed it's doors.

Can you believe it's been forty years already?
Time has flown by, but friendships continue.
We all have fond memories of Jamesburg High School.

REMEMBER, REMININISCE and REKINDLE Friendships.

Here's a toast to Jamesburg High School!

Janet (Wysocki) Donnelly

Jamesburg High School Alumni Association

Dear JHS Alumni & Guests,

Can you believe this is our 10th! All Class Reunion? Back in the year 2000 the Class of '65 got together to plan a 35th year reunion. Surrounding classes heard and wanted to add their years for the reunion. The idea of an Alumni Association was born. We had our "First Ever All Class Reunion" on April 21, 2001 and here we are 15 years later. "Party Like It's 1979" – Jamesburg High School's last year.

We have many friends and relatives who are JHS Alumni and sadly we are losing some each year. Classes ending in 9 and 4 are celebrating milestones. Attending these reunions every other year makes me remember my years at JHS. Celebrating our loves and friendships from then is the reason the Alumni Association was formed. So eat, drink, laugh, dance and most of all REMEMBER! "PEACE"

We meet on the second Wednesday of each month at the Jamesburg Presbyterian Church. Meeting dates are posted on our website: JHSAA.org, Facebook JHSAA and we have an email list. Come to the monthly meetings – each one is like a mini-reunion.

Janet Donnelly

3 SURPRISING BENEFITS OF REMINISCING

1. Reduces Stress

A recent study out of Rutgers University in New Jersey showed that when experiencing acute stress, participants who recalled happy memories for just 14 seconds significantly slashed levels of the stress hormone cortisol, while simultaneously increasing feelings of positivity and well-being.

2. Strengthens Relationships

Taking a trip down memory lane with a loved one is study-proven to strengthen relationships and allow for more intimacy. "Reminiscing creates a strong feeling of belonging," agrees Constantine Sedikide, Ph.D., a leading expert on nostalgia. In addition, research shows that reminiscing on your own can decrease loneliness by activating reward centers in the brain and fostering feelings of social support.

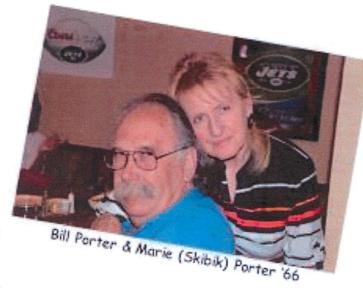

3. Improves Memory

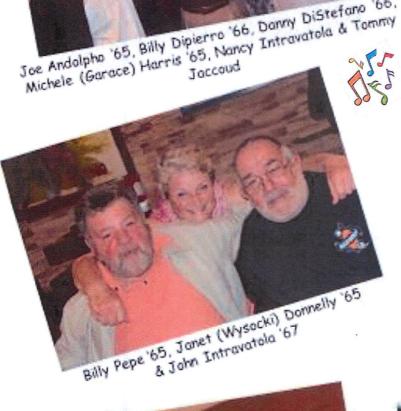

New research has found there are powerful neurological benefits to reminiscing. In fact, one study at the University of Sydney in Australia discovered that people who talk about their past in groups boost their overall recall by 12% and dramatically improve their performance on complex tasks like puzzle-solving.

Franklin Witman "Blimp" Hayes Jamesburg, New Jersey October 13, 1914 – June 22, 1955

Jamesburg's Only Professional Baseball Player~ Youngest Ever in the American League

Mr. Hayes was signed by the Philadelphia Athletics at 17 years old by Cornelius McGillicuddy, Sr., better known as Connie Mack, the first owner of the Athletics. Mr. Hayes started playing baseball at the age of 18, making him the youngest player in the American League at the time.

Born and buried in Jamesburg, Mr. Hayes was a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Jamesburg on Gatzmer Avenue. He graduated from Jamesburg Elementary School in 1928 and Jamesburg High School in 1932.

He attended Pennington Seminary for Boys in 1933 where he played baseball and was recognized for his skill by Mr. McGillicuddy. The rest is history.

He played for the Philadelphia Athletics from 1933 to 1942, the St. Louis Browns from 1942 to 1943, the Athletics again from 1944 to 1945, the Cleveland Indians from 1945 to 1946, the Chicago White Sox in 1946 and the Boston Red Sox in 1947.

He played in the 1934 All-Star American and Japanese expedition games in Japan and was selected for the American League All-Star Team in 1939, 1940, 1941, 1944, 1945 and 1946.

His record of 312 games played straight as a catcher in the American League still stands today.

He retired from baseball, then operated a small sporting goods shop in Point Pleasant, N.J. He died at 40 of an aneurysm on June 22, 1955.

Jamesburg High School

Jamesburg, NJ September, 1906 - June, 1979

The Proud History of Jamesburg High School

In the Beginning...

In 1905, a group of interested Jamesburg citizens assembled to discuss their children's continuing education. Although the Borough of Jamesburg had a fine elementary school, students wishing to pursue a secondary education had to board a train and travel to either Freehold or New Brunswick to attend high school. After much discussion and thoughtful reflection, it was decided that Jamesburg would open its own high school.

In September, 1906, Jamesburg High School welcomed its first students. Classes were held in an upstairs classroom of the Jamesburg Elementary School. It shared this room and a teacher with the school's 8th graders. There were 7 students.

Jamesburg High School continued to grow. By the 1909 school year the student population exceeded 90 students. It graduated its first class in 1910; there were 8 students. The increase of high school students caused the building to become over crowded. On April 20, 1911, the Jamesburg

Board of Education voted to build a new school building that would adequately accommodate the increasing high school population. The new high school was to be built directly opposite the elementary school.

The new Jamesburg High School building welcomed its first students in September, 1912. Shortly thereafter, Jamesburg High School's first principal, Curtis A. Deveney, wrote of the new school:

"One of the things the people of Jamesburg are proud of is an up-to-date High School. The building was designed by J.H. and Wilson Ely of Newark. It is constructed of brick and Indiana limestone, and contains four classrooms, a chemical laboratory, a manual training room, assembly, principal's office and a library."

"Because of its central location pupils attend the High School from Helmetta, Spotswood, Cranbury, Old Bridge, Monroe, Madison, East Brunswick and South Brunswick Townships."

"The town counts itself fortunate in having a High School, for now she need not have her High School boys and girls journey on railroad trains to New Brunswick or other High Schools. . ."

Mr. Deveney served as Jamesburg High School's Principal from 1909 until his death in 1927. He is called the "Father of Jamesburg High School."

The 1911 building served as the home of Jamesburg High School until June, 1932. A growing student population compelled the Jamesburg Board of Education to construct a new high school building on Forsgate Drive, then a large field which was part of Peter Davison's farm.

The new Jamesburg High School structure was designed by the architectural firm of John Noble Pierson and Son of Perth Amboy and was erected in 1931-1932 at a total cost of $165,000.

The building was equipped with a Physics-Chemistry laboratory, a Biology classroom laboratory, an industrial arts shop, gymnasium, auditorium, an office training suite, a home economics suite, and school offices. The seventeen classrooms were furnished with movable desks and decorated in pastel colors. Flourescent lighting, book shelves, and blackboard and bulletin board space added to the attractiveness of the rooms.

The home economics program was housed in its own facility with ample space for a sewing laboratory and several cooking units. The business department occupied the Office Training Suite which was built as an addition to the main building in the Spring of 1963.

The gymnasium had shower and locker accommodations for both boys and girls. The auditorium, separated from the gymnasium (which doubled as a stage) by curtains, seated 464 persons.

Office facilities included a guidance counsler's office suite to provide for privacy during interviews with students or their parents. The 331 steel clothing lockers lined the halls and provided a storage place for the student's belongings. They were assigned on a homeroom basis.

The playing field which still lies at the rear of the school building, provided for a regulation baseball diamond, a one-quarter mile cinder track, and outdoor basketball court, and a soccer field. The school grounds were nicely landscaped and the grass was kept well cut. The student body took great pride in the fine appearance of the building and grounds.

The Jamesburg High School sign on the front lawn (no longer standing) was a gift of the Class of 1963.

This Jamesburg High School building welcomed its first students in September, 1932. It served the needs of Jamesburg area students until it graduated its last class in June, 1979. Jamesburg's high school students now attend Monroe Township High School.

Today...

Although Jamesburg High School is closed, the building is very much alive. It is now known as "Forsgate Commons," a complex of office suites.

Both of the early buildings that housed Jamesburg High School were demolished in the late 1960s to make way for the present Grace M. Breckwedel Middle School. Miss Breckwedel was an Alumna of Jamesburg High School, Class of 1914 and a long-time teacher and elementary school principal in the Jamesburg school system.

The First Graduating Class...

Jamesburg High School graduated its first class in 1910. There were eight students in the graduating class: John Applegate, Tina Greenberg, Alma Grove, Lenora Grove, Alfred Lange, Viola Lewis, Ellis Martin and Marion Paxton.

John Applegate and Alma Grove married shortly after their graduation. They thus became Jamesburg High School's first married Alumni couple.

Between September, 1906 and June, 1979, approximately 6,100 students attended Jamesburg High School at some point in their academic lives. Jamesburg High School graduated 4,100 students in its seventy three year history. While Jamesburg High School may be closed, its influence lives on in the hearts and minds of the thousands of students who walked its hallowed halls. It is a history of which its Alumni can be proud.

NEVER FORGET YOUR FRIENDS

A newlywed young man was sitting on the porch on a humid day, sipping ice tea with his Father.

As he talked about adult life, marriage, responsibilities, and obligations, the Father thoughtfully stirred the ice cubes in his glass and cast a clear, sober look on his Son. "Never forget your friends," he advised, "they will become more important as you get older", you will always need friends. Remember to go out with them occasionally (if possible), but keep in contact with them some how.

"What strange advice!" thought the young man. "I just entered the married world, I am an adult and surely my wife and the family that we will start will be everything I need to make sense of my life." Yet, he obeyed his Father; kept in touch with his friends and annually increased their number. Over the years, he became aware that his father knew what he was talking about.

Inasmuch as time and nature carry out their designs and mysteries on a person, friends are the bulwarks of our life. After 60 years of life, here is what he (and you) will have learned:

Time passes.

Life goes on.

The distance separates.

Children grow up.

Children cease to be children and become independent. And to the parents, it breaks their heart but the children are separated of the parents.

Jobs come and go.

Illusions, desires, attraction, sex....weakens.

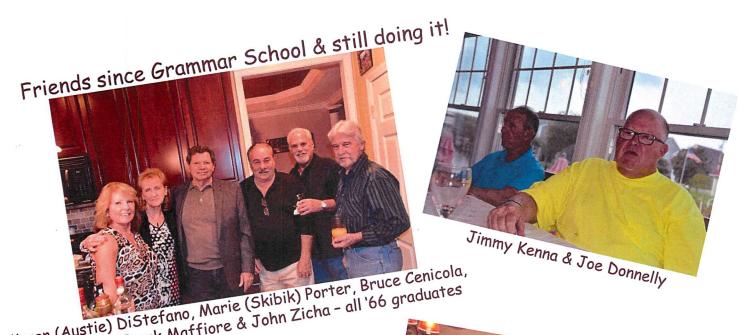

People do not do what they should do.

The heart breaks.

The parents die. Colleagues forget the favors.

The races are over.

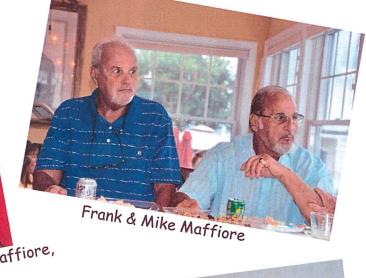

But, true friends are always there, no matter how long or how many miles away they are. A friend is never more distant than the reach of a need, intervening in your favor, waiting for you with open arms or in some way blessing your life. When we started this adventure called LIFE, we did not know of the incredible joys or sorrows that were ahead. We did not know how much we would need from each other. Love your parents, take care of your children, but keep a group of good friends. Dialogue with them but do not impose your criteria. You might send this to your friends (even those you seldom see) who help make sense of your life....
